Em D Am Em C B7 Em -- D
Let us now draw near, all the people, unto the Holy One
Em D Am Em C B7 Em -- D
And know and see what is the offense, what sin has today been done
G D C D
-- For as God lives, who brings salvation to Israel, before God on high -- I do swear
G D C D Em
That even if it be Jonathan, beloved prince, my own dear son -- then he shall die
D --Em
And Jonathan was ensnared
Em D --G
brother, I grieve for you, pray you be spared
G D
Tell me -- what have you done and why!
C D Em
but Jonathan -- he just replied: Here I am if I must die
Em Am Em Am Em Dm Em F Em
B y G o d Jonathan, you indeed shall die
Em Am Em Am Em C B7 Em--
B y G o d Jonathan you, you indeed, must surely die
D G
But the people said:
D C D G
Shall Jonathan be killed—he who brought great salvation to Israel! As God lives
D C D
God forbid!-- that harm befall a single hair upon his head
Am Em Am Em C B7 Em -- D
For he acted with God this very day, Jonathan with God this very day
G D C D G
And so the people redeemed, and so they saved, Jonathan--and he did not die
G D C D G
And so the people redeemed, and so they saved, Jonathan--this very day
G D C D Em
And so the people redeemed, and so they saved, Jonathan--by the living God
