Dear Mr President,

I write to recommend a pardon for Jonathan Pollard and urge you to grant him clemency.

Please be aware that his offence is not being underestimated. He has however now spent over 25 years in prison, a number of which have been in solitary confinement, as punishment for the crime.

I have had the chance to speak to his wife and his period of incarceration has had great impacts on his family life.

I humbly request that the remainder of Jonathan Pollard's sentence is commuted in the interest of justice.

Yours Sincerely,

Pastor E A Adeboye
